ADMIT LOSSES ARE HEAVY

Large Russian Army Is Extremely Busy in North

Last of the Mease our troops advanced across an extremely difficult country and made a vigorous attack, when they emerged from the woods, but were obliged to fall back after a stiff fight south of the firter Semois "on order of General Joffre, our troops and the British troops with drew to the covering positions. Our troops were intact, our cavalry has in no way suffered, and our artillery has affirmed its superiority. Our officers and soldiers are in the best of condition, morally and physically.

"Ay a result of the orders which have been issued, the aspect of the stringle will change in a few days. The French army will remain for a liture on the defensive, but at the right moment, to be decided upon by the commander-in-chief, it will resume a vigorous offensite.

"Our losses are heavy, it would be permature to enumerate them. It would be equally so to counter sie those of the Germans who suffered as heavily they were obliged to abandan due floor counter attacks and estable correspondent of the Corners seems.

premature to enumerate them. It would be equally so to camperate those of the Germans who suffered so heavily they were oblised to abandon their counter attacks and establish themselves in fresh positions in Lorranc.

"We delivered four attacks yesterday from our positions north of Nancy, influcting very heavy loss on the enemy."

"It regard to the general situation, we have the full use of our railroads and retain command of the seas. Our aperations have enabled the Russians to come into action and papetrate the heart of West Prussia.

Defenses Intact.

"It is to be regretted that the offensive operations planned failed to get their purpose, as a result of difficulties impossible to foresee. It would have shortened the war but our defenses remain intact in the presence of an already weakened enemy.

"Every Frenchman will deplore the temporary abandonment of Abace and Laurance which we had occupied and laurance which we had occupied and

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 —
While the house today was pareing a hill to print five thousand cupies of The Hagge convention treates of 1889 and 1907, the proceedings were interrupted by Expresentative Mann.
"In view of what is taking place
in Europe," he said, "this strikes me as a suit of legislative surcusm. If there is any useless body or theory anywhere at the present time, it is The Hagne
peace tribunal."
Representative Barnhardt of Indiana replied that he believed the sentiment for peace in this country was as string as it ever was.

GIVE AN A CHANCE

Two homeless and metherless below, one 12 years and one 13 years and one 13 years and one 13 years old, are low in the care of the local Humane society. They are not below of bad disposition and malicious habits, but bright, loope it, healthful hoys, who will one of these days be men of power and influence either for good or bad, and it depends on the next few years of their lives what kind of men they will be. The boys are not years of their lives what kind of men they will be. The boys are not years of their lives what kind of men they will be treated misguided and mendaded. But their Innocence has been proven, and intend they were onsidered so tender by the juveralle officers that they will not be sent to the reform school except nile officers that they will not be sent to the reform school except as a last researt to furnish them with feed and clotning.

Any one who wasts a chance to be the making of a near, who wants to give a best a chance to grow up and decelop into something useful to bimself and the jest of the world, now has the opportunity. Phone the Franche society, No. 524, and ask about them and see them if you prefer. In a way the boys will be useful to their benefactors, and at least in after years. The up and call in after years "rise up and call lim blessed."
